

PRESS

SUBJECT
TUNG PIN SOO
"CHOP CHOP"

TUNG PIN SOO—

Tung Pin Soo (A. H. Wheatley,) was born in Sidney, Australia, migrated to this country at the tender age of seven, was educated on the Eastern Seaboard. Studied music and art, and was a graduate of the Hilliar Institute of Electrical Engineering. Tung started his career as an assisant to the famous Australian Magician "Jean Hugard."

TUNG PIN SOO'S

Name was chosen from the name of one of the eight Chinese Dieties, to be used and identified by in the theatrical world. Today it is one of the leading names in this field.

CHINESE IMPERSONATOR—

Tung Pin Soo has after many years become one of the nations foremost Chinese Impersonators, a close friend of the late "Warner Oland." He has acquired all the mannerisms of the Oriental race. Tung portrays the modern diplomat type Chinese and is often called the Charlie Chan of American nite life.

THEATERS—

Tung Pin Soo has appeared at all the nations leading theatres from coast to coast. From B. F. Keith's Boston to the Paramount Los Angeles.

CHOP CHOP—

Chop Chop is a sort of nick-name that has become attached to Tung. It is easy to remember and pronounce, and being very commercial, is often used as billing.

NIGHT CLUBS—

Tung Pin Soo, or Chop Chop, has become a favorite in night clubs, ranging from the Mount Royal's Normandie Roof to the world famous Copa Cabana in Rio de Janeiro, S. A.

HOTELS—

Chop Chop and Charlene—have appeared in most of the smart and fashionable dining rooms of the leading hotels in this country, including most of the Statler chain.

FOREIGN—

Tung Pin Soo spent three and one-half years overseas entertaining our troops in Iceland, Greenland, Goose Bay Labrador, England, etc. This served to bring him closer to the heart of show business and a career he loves so well.

ASSISTED—

By a very charming, young, beautiful and exotic starlet—Charlene, lends charm and beauty to a colorful and beautifully costumed show.

That old Black Magic holds you in its spell when Tung Pin Soo conjures a flight of live doves out of thin air. With a speedy display humor and amazing showmanship, all delightfully sold with his cute and cunning Oriental mannerisms.